

July

Clearing the sunken greenhouse

Ruth discovers what could be a Victorian water cistern

Starting work re-surfacing the roadway

Cleaning out original stone trough for use with the sunken greenhouse

August

Mysterious structures in the sunken greenhouse

Corporate group collecting old terracotta roof tiles

Working on the new veg. stall

It was a hot few weeks!

More old structures uncovered by the sunken greenhouse

New veg. stall try-out

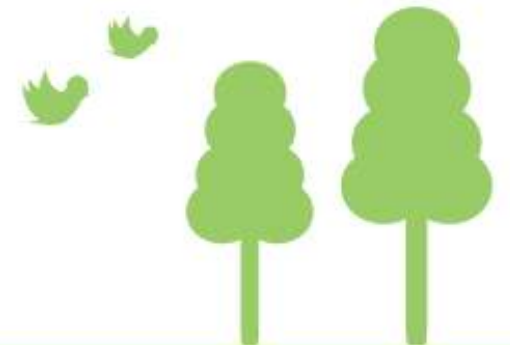

Painting frames – 2 undercoats and 3 top coats each!

Sowing Autumn/Winter crops

Collecting spuds from the north slip-field

Conserving/repairing the central heated wall

New electric mower's first outing

Remember the drought!

Drainage pipe discovered under sunken greenhouse

More work on roadway

More work on the access ramp

Ruth discovers more structures by the west wall

Old apple tree starting to produce again

Overnight camps for an early start!

September

Harvesting potatoes

Making a bookshelf for the gardener's house

The things we find!

North-east corner cleared

Clearing near old north entrance

Collecting rubble buried in northern slip-garden

Mowing the green (at last!) grass

Access ramp seems level!

More greenhouse frames installed

